

CAMPUS CORNER

DIU develops Block Chain Technology

Hamidul Haque Khan, treasurer, Daffodil International University, speaks at the press conference at 71 Milanayatan of the university yesterday. PHOTO COURTESY

The Department of Software Engineering of Daffodil International University (DIU) successfully developed apps to verify students' certificate in collaboration with Government's a2i project using 'Block Chain Technology' and achieved grand success.

DIU is the first ever university in Bangladesh which has successfully implemented the technology. It was informed at a press conference on 'Certificate Verification with Block Chain Technology' held at 71 Milanayatan of the university yesterday, says a press release.

Hamidul Haque Khan, DIU treasurer, Dr Touhid Bhuiyan, head, Department of Software Engineering (SWE), Md Khaled Sohel, assistant professor, Department of Software Engineering (SWE), Atiqul Islam Khan, CEO and Tanvir Ahmed, COO of Softbd Ltd, Shahedul Hasan, System Analyst of Softbd Ltd, were present the press conference.