

Rabindranath Knowledge Park at DIU Library

The Rabindranath Knowledge Park, located at DIU Library, is an open space designed to foster knowledge sharing and open discussions in a green environment. It provides a serene and open-minded atmosphere for users to engage in meaningful conversations. Teachers find joy in conducting presentations with their students, and students make use of this space to engage in focused knowledge-sharing and discussions. Additionally, visitors from both national and international backgrounds appreciate the opportunity to explore the entire DIU area and capture memorable moments in the refreshing outdoor setting.
