CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION

1.1 What is internship and why internship is important?

An internship is a period of work experience offered by an employer to give students and graduates exposure to the working environment, often within a specific industry, which relates to their field of study.

A practical work background carries a major significance when attempting to enter the job market.

It's all about competition. An Internship provides real life experience and exposure also gain first-hand exposure of working in the real world which allows students to harness the skill, knowledge and theoretical practice they learnt in university. But knowledge doesn't always translate to the working life.

The great thing about internships is that it teaches young professionals about the specific industries and companies.

Though out the intern helps you to know yourself about your goals and how to best achieve them also connects and develop professional network.

CHAPTER 3

LEARNING AND EXPERIENCING

3.1. Knowledge gathering/ learning

At the time of my internship program I learnt a lot of things at these days as a sub-editor and also a field worker of the daily campus. At the office and outside of the office I learnt a lot of things about my work place and current situation. Some of my experience are mentioning below-

NEWS PUBLISHING AND EDITING- As a beginner I hadn't that much knowledge about news collecting, publishing and editing. It was a great opportunity for me to learn these things under my supervisor. I got advice from all the editors, journalist and professionals of the daily campus. I found it that you have to look after the whole country about different condition of the country hence your own personal sector. I had to communicate with all the reporters of the online newspaper and different professional personalities on the daily basis to collect news and edit them that made me so much knowledgeable about news. I also learnt the timeliness and importance of deadlines about the news publication.

Practical Experience- it is known that the knowledge that gathered by the experience is the best learning of anyone's besides bookish knowledge. During the study of journalism course, we have come to know that the experience knowledge of this course is the most important thing of ours. This was also a challenging task when I have gone through my intern process. The process of information collection and editing these things was much more difficult than we had known. As I was the sub-editor of the newspaper, I was much responsible for any ambiguity and wrong news. I have to check all the news and judge and find out their clarity and validity. From the very first week I have to submit my edited news to my supervisor, so by the number 10 week I have become more capable of editing and publishing news. As an internee I wasn't allowed to cover so much news, that's why I couldn't improve myself as expected. Hope I will get the opportunity to furnish myself in near future.

Sharing- After the first month went by, I had connections with several reporters of different media houses including reporters from The Daily Campus. I shared information with my counterparts and a member of a Facebook group of reporters of Daily Campus, in which members of the group updates recent stories 24 hours a day.

3.2.Tools and technologies Used

At the time of my internship at the Daily Campus, I used several tools and technologies for covering news and desk works. I used the smart phone 'Xiaomi' and also used DSLR Cannon 5D mark as a tool to have a connection with my colleagues and of course to browse internet to stay updated. I used my Smartphone to record notes of important events and everyday schedule. If I forgot or skipped anything, those notes would help me. The Daily Campus uses different methods to share and collect information and news of different areas, such as WhatsApp, Email. I, along with all the other employees had free access to one of them. I did not need to sit in a common chair every time. I could sit anywhere in the office and complete my works comfortably. Though, I had a permanent desk of my own. I used social media groups and office's telephone facility to stay updated about what was going on. Moreover, I learned a fluent use of computer. I used Bijoy software for Bengali typing, uploading news, format etc.

3.3. Special experience

As previously mentioned, the practical knowledge of this course was much more needed besides bookish knowledge. As I wasn't involved with any newspaper and media in my entire 11 semesters, I was much more lack of this opportunity. And as soon as I got the opportunity of this internship, I couldn't resist myself to miss this. With this whole internship process I got chance to meet a lot of people of media and another field. That builds my networking a lot. The most important thing I get to know that networking is one of the most prerequisite condition to work in this field because it will help anyone to get reference and do new task. As an online newspaper it was much more difficult for The Daily campus to remain at its own position as there is a lot of online news portal around the country. For this competition I need to write a quality full content to attract the visitors to visit our site. I came to know the techniques they used to apply from my supervision and other office people. I think this special experience will help me a lot to attract online visitors of a newspaper.

CHAPTER FOUR

EVALUATION OF LEARNING

4.1. Academic learning and practical work

Academic learning helped me to know the basic and professional study of journalism. Without the help of that knowledge I couldn't understand different terms and conditions also techniques of newspaper publishing. It helps me a lot to do better under stable job at intern time. But what I didn't know was the practical and actual use of these knowledge. Some seems to me very ambiguous and unfamiliar to me and even something very simple and I thought that it wouldn't be needed in future. But the actual situation that I learnt is from the practical knowledge work at the workplace is totally different from my thoughts. It shows me the knowledge that everything is needed for anyone and sometimes the simpler thing becomes the toughest. That's why I will be always owe to this intern opportunity as it brings my thought to light and shows me that I have to improve myself more and more in the upcoming days to keep UpToDate with the new environment and new place. I came to know the way to approach people and ask them about different types of question. I also came to know how to behave at a corporate place and what is the outcome for your every decision. That's why I can say that besides this academic knowledge I became able to know practical knowledge of a workplace.

4.2. Expectation and Outcome

Being an Intern, I hadn't had any experience and as a non-professional, I wanted to learn how to report and editing those. But I got support from Mahbub Roni who is the advisor editor of thy daily campus. From him, I got some basic and professional advice about making report and the want of using word. Through that I got to know my advantage and disadvantages as well as self-skill development.

4.3. Skills developed during my internship

During my internship at The Daily Campus, I developed some certain professional skills. They are listed below-

1. Learned to type in Bijoy fluently.
2. Developed my language skills.
3. Learned how to work under immense pressure in rush hours.
4. Learned to work in a group.
5. During my internship, one of the most important skills I have acquired is News Editing.
6. Developed professionalism.
7. Developed social relationships, which I think will help in my future career building.

4.4 Experience and future career

So much competition is happening in job sector now these days. Without experience it's hard to get a job. For being a strong candidate in the job sector an applicant must have additional qualities along with the degrees. These three months internship experience has given me the opportunity to develop our skills and having a solid foundation for future career.

CHAPTER FIVE

CONCLUSION

5.1. Conclusion

The Daily Campus is the first place where I worked like a professional. Although I was an intern there, I wasn't so like a professional, but did have some idea about the workplace. I experienced how to deal with the seniors in the workplace. Each and every step of working there was the new experience for me. My supervisor and my colleagues at the Daily Campus were very supportive. Without their help I could not learn anything. They are very friendly, supportive and well-behaved people. Whenever I needed help, they were ready to help me. Finally, I want to thank all my teachers who were such great guide for me. It was just next to impossible for me to learn a single word about journalism without them. I feel proud to be a student of Daffodil International University.

5.2 Recommendation

Every organization has limitations and lacking. But apart from my supervision and had limited time I couldn't find any lacking.
