Chapter – 1

Introduction

1.1 Background of the Study

Organizations give idea to the HR department as the vital source of building improvement among the personnel to steer the agency to the favorable result. To reach the dreams of the corporation, human resources control needs to be very cautious about the manpower of the agency Human useful resource branch is involved with the “people” thing in control. Since every business enterprise is made up of people, receiving their services, growing their skills, motivating them to high tiers of performance, are essential to reaching organizational goals and making sure that they bring about on with keeping commitment to the organization. The study is focused specially on G4S Limited which is actively involved in security services. G4S is specialized in security service and has separate division to operate diverse services they provide. G4S’s service is divided into four departments, Manned Services, Cash Services, Electronic Security Service and Facility Services. Here, the focal point was given on the overall operations and accounting manuals of G4S. There was huge opportunity to focus in this area of research. But due to meet the deadline only the recruitment and training strategies is the primary target of this study. In spite of that, the scope and coverage of the study had been considerable. HRM can be distinguished as moving through recruitment and selection, training and development, motivating, and maintaining the existing human resources.

1.2 Objectives of the study:

The study is undertaken with the following objectives

- I. To explore the Recruitment, Selection and Training Practices of G4S Secure Solutions Bangladesh (P) LTD
- II. To evaluate the Recruitment, Selection and Training Practices of G4S Secure Solutions Bangladesh (P) LTD
- III. To find out the problems relating to the Recruitment, Selection and Training Practices of G4S Secure Solutions Bangladesh (P) LTD

IV. To provide some recommendations to overcome the identified problems.

1.3 Methodology of The study:

An exploratory research had been used in formulating the report. Basic research had been conducted. Theoretical and practical studies had also been absorbed. The report has been prepared on operational procedural analysis of G4S Human resource management.

For conducting the study, appropriate data had been collected from reliable sources.

Primary data

Primary data has been collected from –

- Discussion with the respective organization's officials
- Working with dedicated group of employees who are authorized to develop HR manuals.

Secondary data

The study was mainly based on the secondary data. Necessary secondary data has been collected from –

- Annual Report of G4S Limited.
- Website of G4S Limited.
- G4S official email
- Data from other published reports
- Different Books, Journals, News Papers etc.
- Bangladesh Labor Acts, 2006.
- The private security service acts, 2006.

Prior to using the secondary sources of facts and information, these had been cautiously scrutinized to choose its validity and reliability by means of the HR department of G4S. Data and statistics received from different resources had been critically as compared and located negligible incompatible. Theoretical analysis along with techniques have been used to verify the findings of the report. The analysis has been offered first and then findings were drawn

1.4 Limitations of the study

- As it is the non-government organization so the collection of study area information quite hard.
- Some information could not be gathered due to private policy of the organization.
- The quantity and significance of statistics collection is every other hindrance of this report. The amount of facts wished to behavior such sort of assessment is great however that could not be gathered. That's why the report is probably lack sufficient readability and credibility. Rather it recommends further and larger look at on the matter.
- Lack of Records, inadequate books, unavailable information in website. These constraints narrowed the scope of correct analysis.

2.4 OVERVIEW OF G4S LTD

G4S plc (formerly Group 4 Securicor) is a British multinational security Services Company headquartered in Crawley, United Kingdom. It is the world's largest security company measured by revenues and has operations in around 125 countries. With over 620,000 employees, it is one of the world's largest private sector employers. G4S was founded in 2004 by the merger of the UK-based Securicor plc with the Denmark-based Group 4 Falck.

G4S has its origins in a guarding business founded in Copenhagen in 1901 by Marius Hogrefe originally known as “Kjobenhavn Frederiksberg Nattevagt” (which translates as Copenhagen and Frederiksberg Night Watch) and subsequently renamed Falck. In 2000 Group 4, a security firm formed in the 1960s, merged with Falck to form Group 4 Falck. In 2002 Group 4 Falck went on to buy The Wackenhut Corporation in the USA.

G4S was formed in July 2004, when Group 4 Falck's security business merged with Securicor to create Group 4 Securicor and began trading on both the London and Copenhagen Stock Exchanges.

In 2006, 2007 and 2008 G4S was the subject of a global campaign by union workers alleging that its subsidiaries undermine labor and human rights standards. Some of these groups were organized under the banner of the SEIU-funded Focus on Group 4 Securicor. This group supported protests at Group 4 Securicor's annual general meeting in London in 2005.

In March 2008, it was announced that G4S were taking over Scottish Rock Steady Group – who steward at major sporting and music events mostly in the UK. Rock Steady events have included Live8 concerts in London, Scottish FA Cup Final & the Download Festival. In April 2008, G4S acquired RONCO Consulting Corporation, one of the world's premier humanitarian and commercial mine action, ordnance disposal and security companies.

In May 2008, G4S acquired Armor Group International. GSL, a provider of outsourced justice services, was also acquired by G4S in May 2008. Also, in the same month, G4S acquired Serbian company Progard Securitas.

In 2008, G4S also acquired Touchcom, Inc. for US$23 million. Touchcom, Inc. is located in the Burlington/Bedford, Massachusetts area. The rebranding of Touchcom, Inc. to G4S was completed by 1 January 2012.

In December 2008 G4S and UNI Global Union, announced the launch of an Ethical Employment Partnership, which will drive improvements in standards across the global security industry. Simultaneous to this, G4S and the SEIU reached an agreement to end their long dispute and establish a framework to work together in the interest of employees.

In 2009, G4S continued to acquire companies: Secura Monde International Limited and Shiremoor International Engineering Limited, together, the UK's leading specialist banknote and high security technical and commercial advisory companies; All Star International for $60M, one of the premier facilities management and base operations support companies providing services to the US Government; Adesta, US-based provider of integrated security systems and communication systems; and Hill & Associates Consultants Limited, Asia's leading provider of specialist risk-mitigation consulting services.

In the autumn of 2009, G4S personnel in Australia went on strike, arguing that the company had subjected them to low pay and poor working conditions. The strike imperiled the operations of the court system in the state of Victoria. The guards provided entry-point screening for weapons and bombs in both the County Court and Magistrates Court, as well as additional security in the court rooms themselves.

G4S acquired the South African Security Systems Company, Skycom, in September 2010. Then in April 2011 it bought the Cotswold Group, a surveillance and investigations company. Still now the organization is rapidly increasing throughout the world.

2.5 G4S in Bangladesh:

G4S Secure Solutions Bangladesh (P) Ltd. Joined the Bangladeshi marketplace in 1998 with broad range of services to serve to the need of the marketplace. The organisation has since then quickly enlarged with over 12,000 employees and operations unfold to nearly all elements of Bangladesh. In 2011, the call of the company has been modified to G4S secure answers from the former G4S Security Services Bangladesh (P) Ltd. The alternate has been made for the higher portraying the capabilities and operations of the organization

The main aim of G4S to provide high first-rate and standard safety offerings to the emerging and fine phase market. G4S Bangladesh, being a professional safety offerings enterprise presents a wide variety of services to cater to the want of the marketplace by supplying the most effective security for all styles of premises, from the largest MNC to the individual residence hold, covering surely each security products or offerings to be had within the marketplace. The agency's one-of-a-kind standing within the international of security does not end result from its length or scale of operations; it's miles in fact a reflection of the high first-class and professional approach to the offerings supplied to its clients.
