

The Daily Star

12:00 AM, July 05, 2018 / LAST MODIFIED: 12:00 AM, July 05, 2018

DIU jointly organises “International Summer School of Human Rights”

A 5-day long “International Summer School of Human Rights” was jointly organised by Institute of Hazrat Mohammad (SAW), Knowledge Steez, India and Daffodil International University (DIU) at Daffodil International University from July 1-5, 2018.

Dr. Md. Sabur Khan, Chairman, BOT, DIU inaugurated the programme as chief guest. Presided over Maj. Gen. (Retd.) Md. Firdaus Mian, Chief Adviser of Institute of Hazrat Mohammad (SAW), the programme was also addressed by Prof. Dr. Yousuf M. Islam, VC, DIU; Niteesh Kumar Upadhyay, Assistant Professor, Galgotia University and founder of Knowledge Steez; and Dr. Farhana Helal Mehtab, Associate Dean, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, DIU.

In this summer school, 11 participants and delegates came from India and Nepal and 30 participants attended from Bangladesh. They attended many workshops and seminars at this programme.