

Update : 2018-07-30 00:00:00
Asia quiz competition held at DIU
Metro Desk

Participants pose for a photo with guests at an international quiz competition at the auditorium of Daffodil International University in the capital on Sunday. — sun photo

International quiz competition on ‘Surakshit Khadya Abhiyan: Asia Quiz Competition on Food Safety 2018’ Bangladesh Round was held on Sunday at 71 auditorium of Daffodil International University (DIU) in the capital. The Department of Nutrition and Food Engineering of DIU organised the event, says a press release. The Ministry of Food secretary Shahabuddin Ahmed inaugurated the competition as the chief guest where additional secretary and chairman of Bangladesh Food Safety Authority (BFSA) Mohammad Mahfuzul Hoque was present as special guest. DIU Vice Chancellor Prof Dr Yousuf Mahbubul Islam presided over the programme. Chairman of Surakshit Khadya Abhiyan in India Sanjay Dave, Pro-Vice Chancellor of DIU Prof Dr SM Mahbub Ul Haque Majumdar, Dean of Faculty of Allied Health Science Prof Dr Ahmad Ismail Mustafa, Head of Nutrition and Food Engineering department Prof Dr Md Bellal Hossain and Dr Amir Ahmed of DIU were addressed on the occasion. The 24 participants from 12 Universities and Polytechnic Institution with Daffodil International University attended the regional competition. The winners will get opportunity to attend the Grand Finale at New Delhi in India. The final round will be held on December 15, 2018 where 163 students from 13 countries of Asia, including India, China, Nepal and Bangladesh will take part in the competition. Quiz Master Sanjay Dave said that he started this quiz competition in India from 2015. Now it is spreading in Asia. He thanked to Bangladesh to join this international competition.

Print