

26-7-2018

e-Daily INDUSTRY

'Certificate Verification with Block Chain Technology' Confc held at DIU

Industry Desk: Department of Software Engineering of Daffodil International University successfully developed a apps to verify students' certificate in collaboration with Government's A2i project using Block Chain Technology and achieved grand success. Daffodil International University is the first ever university in Bangladesh which has successfully implemented Block-Chain Technology to verify students' certificate. This was informed in a Press Conference on "Certificate Verification with Block Chain Technology" held today on 25 July, 2018 at 71 Milonayoton of the University. Hamidul Haque Khan, Treasurer, Daffodil International University was present in the Press Conference on "Certificate Verification with Block Chain Technology" as the chief guest. Presided over by Dr. Touhid Bhuiyan, Head, Department of Software Engineering (SWE), the Press Conference was addressed by Md. Khaled Sohel, Assistant Professor, Department of Software Engineering (SWE), Atiqul Islam Khan, CEO and Tanvir Ahmed, COO of Softbd Ltd, Shahedul Hasan, System Analyst of Softbd Ltd

It was also informed in the Press Conference that Softbd Ltd. helped this research project by establishing network at Daffodil International University. Government's a2i project also helped in this research work.